After it had made the circle of the church, it was handed to the minister, who, by the way, had exchanged pulpits with the regular pastor, and he found not a penny in it. He inverted the hat over the pulpit cushion and shook it, that its emptiness might be known, then raising his eyes toward the ceiling, he exclaimed, with great fervor, "I thank God that I have got back my hat from this congregation."

GEN. WEST. Correspondence from Fort Wingate, N. M., dated the 10th of March, which appears in the Contra Costa Gazette, says:

It may chance that some of your readers may have known Gen. West. (I think he was editor of the Shipping Gazette, San Francisco,) who, until lately, was commanding the District of Arizona. Gen. West left California, Lieut. Colonel of 1st Infantry, C. V., was appointed Colonel upon the promotion of Carleton, (then Colonel,) and soon after Brigadier-General. He has won the high esteem of all experienced military men, and conducted the affairs of his District with so much wisdom and excusable strictness, that it will be difficult to replace him. In order properly to estimate the difficulties of his position, it must be remembered that the Mesilla valley is close to El Paso, which, being in Old Mexico, is naturally a safe retreat from justice, not only of the vagabondism which the rule of such a man as West would naturally disturb, but also of those fierce secession spirits, the natural product of Texan frontier life. Yet, strangely enough, little difficulty has been experienced from these parties. They either admired the vigor of West's actions, the fearlessness with which he visited their retreats, or else they anticipated that if they made the necessity, West would not hesitate to bell the cat, in other words, to seize them wherever found.

It is from other sources that sufficient difficulty has arisen to cause Gen. West to be relieved of his command, in order that he may meet the charges preferred against him by one Judge Knapp, who, having attempted at a time when the district was in a highly troublesome condition to prevent the action of a military commission, and being forcibly prevented by West from so doing, has put a string of charges and specifications of a most formidable character—to those who shall attempt the herculean task of reading them. This same Judge Knapp has been in trouble with the military authorities from the time of his entering the Department until now. In Santa Fe, he was twice confined in the guard-house; first for refusing to report himself, he being a stranger fresh from Denver, at the Provost-Marshal's office; and second, for disorderly conduct in the streets. His career at other towns down the river was of a similar character, and being a man of some ability, he seeks the reputation of a martyr to civil liberty through the medium of his political friends, and the pages of the copperhead journals of New York, who are only too glad to find a hole in the coat of a Union general.

As I hear nothing more about Gen. Carleton's going to Washington, it may be that the rumor arose in consequence of Gen. West's being ordered there. West has turned over the command of the District to Col. Bowie, of the 5th Infantry California Volunteers. GEO. GWYHER, M. D.

WISE IN TIME—WINDING UP.—The Secretary of the "Suisun Mining Companies Nos. 1 and 2," (consolidated) informs us that at a meeting of the Trustees on Wednesday, a dividend of $2 per share was declared and paid, being 80 per cent. of the assessments collected and still unexpended. In the language of the Secretary, "the companies then bursted the die."—Solano Herald.

A Sunday school scholar at Akron, on being requested to repeat from the Bible a verse of his own selection, promptly gave the following: "If any one attempts to haul down the American flag, shoot him on the spot."

"Six feet in boots!" exclaimed Mrs. Partington. "What will the importance of this world come to, I wonder? Why, they might just as seasonably tell me the man had six heads in his hat."
